Ranjeet Bahadur Srivastava Vs. The Returning
Officer, Lucknow and another.

Hon'ble P. Dayal, J.

This election petition was filed by one Ranjeet Bahadur Srivastava against the Returning Officer and the State of U. P. It was sent from jail. The Officer, pointed out certain defects in the petition and necessary papers were directed to be sent to jail for removal of defects. The jail authorities informed that the petitioner has already been released and the papers were sent to him at his given address. Still another order was passed for sending necessary papers to the petitioner at his given address that were available for removal of defects. The office report shows that the notice for removal of defects has already been served on the petitioner at Barabanki. He had not turned up to remove the defects.

The petitioner did not comply with the provisions of sections 81 (1), 82 and 117 of the Representation of Peoples Act, Annexure 1 which was furnished by the petitioner was not signed by him, affidavit filed by him was not properly sworn, necessary court fee has not been furnished and also there has to not been a proper presentation.

For all these reasons the petition is dismissed. No order as to costs.
